Pastor's Message

Reflections on the Second
Sunday in Ordinary Time:

We are God's beloved, and we belong to God. When we accept Jesus Christ as Our Lord and Savior we experience God's love for us and the connection between faith and all of life. In virtue of this, we are invited to live the message of our faith in an extraordinary way. "Do whatever He tells you" is Mary's way of telling the stewards to have faith in the power of Jesus. When we have faith in the power of Jesus, great things happen in our lives. Today's Gospel shows that Jesus is concerned about the everyday activities of each of us. Jesus' first miracle, the changing of water into wine, shows that He wishes to be with people and rejoice with them. God is very much present in our lives and the power of God can accomplish anything. Have we invited Jesus into our homes and our lives to help discover our giftedness? The mission of every Catholic and Christian is to recognize the ways that Jesus and Mary assist us and help us to be the best we can be in life. We are invited to assist others in discovering how God wishes them to know of His love and concern for them. As a collaborative, we are capable of bringing much hope and love to so many, and when we do this, we can assist God in enriching the world.

Holy Hour for Life — Sunday, January 20th at 3pm
This Holy Hour for Life coordinated by the Deacons for Life is co-sponsored by St. Bernadette and St. Mary Parishes and will be held at 3P.M. at St. Bernadette on this day in union with other parishes in the Archdiocese.

We know in our hearts and believe that all people are made in the very image and likeness of God. God has a plan for each one of us. We pray for those who do not appreciate or celebrate the dignity of human life. This is an important time and spiritual event for all who wish and pray for peace and greater respect for all of life.
