Pastor's Message

Reflections on the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

We spread a message about Jesus by the example we set. Have we fully accepted the teachings of Jesus as a means of increasing our vision to do well for others and live holy lives? Through our efforts, one more person may hear the message of God, experience God's love and happiness, and bring this to others. God often sends people into our lives to help us, and he sends us into the lives of others to help them. How many people around us have great potential but need to be encouraged? Jesus gives us the strength and the courage to be a positive force just like He. Each of us can make a difference. Sometimes that difference has everything to do with giving someone guidance or a good model of spiritual living, or giving a person extra time and extra patience.

Blessing of Throats today after Mass: Throats will be blessed in honor of St. Blaise following Mass.
