AN EASTER PROCLAMATION

*The hosts of heaven exult and sing aloud in mighty triumph!
 Let the earth be glad as glory alights and night reigns no more.
 Let the Church rejoice at the victory of her Lord and Master,
 Who paid the debt of Adam,
 Who frees those doomed to die,
 Who heals the broken-hearted and bind up their wounds,
 Who forgives the sinner and raises up the lowly,
 Who destroys death forever,
 Whose Kingdom shall have no end.
 God our Father, eternal is your love for us!
 Christ the Son, in victory you reign!
 Holy Spirit, set the Easter fire ablaze in our hearts.
 Together you live and reign and ransom your people, one God forever and ever.
 Amen.*

Pastor's Message

Reflections on Easter Sunday

My dear friends in the Lord Jesus,

This is a time to rejoice and be glad. The daily readings this Lent have raised our awareness and given us opportunities to examine our lives. The Sunday readings have raised our awareness of all the wonderful works of love and healings that Jesus brings to his people on many different levels. Throughout all of this, we are reminded of how God walks with us. Jesus who walks with us is risen from the dead. Easter is a time of remarkable hope. Jesus' death and resurrection bring new meaning to everything. Each of us is invited to find the risen Jesus in different places such as: the breaking of the bread, or visiting the sick and the suffering, in service to others, and in other ways as well. Jesus showed us that every life is sacred and special. Today we pray that God's dream for social justice will move from an idea to a reality for all. We pray that the youth of the world continue to be filled with wonder and hope. We pray that all who lead us may be inspired by God.

On this Easter we pray for the wellbeing of our troops and our first responders. We pray for all who we owe a depth of thankfulness to for who they are. We are mindful of the gratitude that we owe to each other.

Thank you to all who make our liturgical celebrations beautiful and spiritual; by their gifts of music, ministries, or planning the liturgies, or decorating the altar, or taking care of all the other elements that go into the life of this parish. Thank you for being who you are. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Please have a blessed and wonderful Easter Season.

Fr. Phil McGaugh, Pastor
and the entire collaborative staff

Today's Easter collection benefits our priests in good standing, especially our senior priests, who have been helping others for decades, including people like Hector. Hector was a young man who was living in his car with little food to eat when Fr. Paul O'Brien encouraged him to follow his dream of attending college. Fr. Paul was there to help Hector every step of the way along that journey. Hector graduated from Regis College and is now working as a youth counselor giving young students the same kind of inspiration he once received from Fr. Paul. We encourage you to see Hector's real-life story (on our parish website or) at clergytrust.org.

The Easter collection today allows us to give back to our priests, like Fr. Paul and our senior priests, who have been there for all of us. Thank you for helping us care for their health and well-being with your donation to the Clergy Health and Retirement Trust. This trust is independently managed with a majority lay board of trustees. The funds are used for the sole benefit of active and senior priests in good standing.
