June 16 ~ Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

The Most Holy Trinity is a Mystery of our faith, a mystery not to solve, but to believe in. Three Persons in One God - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

While we cannot fully understand this mystery, we can be confident that the Spirit will guide us to all truth. This week use today's gospel acclamation in prayer asking for deeper understanding of the mystery of the Trinity: "Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; to God who is, who was, and who is to come."

CATHOLIC APPEAL

Our Catholic Appeal goal is $30,911. To date, we have raised $21,949.82, which is 71 percent of our goal.

Catholic Appeal:

On this Trinity Sunday, it is a good time to ask about how we are sharing our time, talents, and treasures to help others. The work of the Catholic Appeal is so very important to the mission of our Archdiocese. The work of the Catholic Appeal brings hope to so many people. As a collaborative, it is essential that as much as possible each family in both parishes support the Catholic Appeal. Thank you to all who have already participated in this year's Catholic Appeal. If you have not already done so, please prayerfully consider how you can support the Catholic Appeal. It is also important that you fill out an in-pew pledge form, if you have not already done so, indicating whether you have already given or even if you are not able to give at this time. Thank you for all that you do.

The Parish Office hours are 9am until 3pm Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.
 Office is closed on Friday.

The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are one in perfect communion.

~ John 16:12-15

Reflections on the Most Holy Trinity

Happy Fathers' Day:

This is a day to give glory and praise to God for the gifts of our dads. It is also a wonderful day to remember them in a special way in our prayers.

Thank you:

As I continue to gain health and strength from my recent Surgery, and as we grow as a collaborative, thank you for your continued prayers and your patience

Reflections for Trinity Sunday:

When we make the sign of the Cross, we are reminded of the mystery of the Trinity. Faith is truly a wonderful gift from God that helps us to appreciate all of the gifts of life in a much more spiritual filled way. In the course of the day, we believe that God is all around us, and this gives us reasons for hope and praise. Today we celebrate a great feast and a great mystery: the communion of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the perfect community of love. Three beings in one God- -what a wonderful and awe-inspiring mystery. God is a communion of love, and all of creation is an overflow of God's love. The Catechism of the Catholic Church calls the mystery of the Holy Trinity the most important mystery of our faith. Do each of us show enough reverence and awe for the greatness and the glory of this mystery? How is our belief in God as a Trinity related to the way we live and pray? God is revealed as a God of mercy, love, and compassion. Mysteries are intended to be contemplated in wonder and proclaimed by our lives. We are all created in the image and likeness of God. Do we experience the three beings of the Trinity, one God, as hero? After all, the Trinity shows us great love; by example, by willingness to give life for us, and by giving us reasons to have faith, hope, and love.

The work we do as a collaborative reflects the wonderful work of the Trinity. Disciples in Mission is our invitation to show others the love of the Trinity. When we attend Mass and receive the Eucharist the whole Trinity comes into our hearts. Jesus extends to us the invitation to take part in the life of the Trinity. When we pray and read Sacred Scripture we are getting to know the Trinity. With faith in God, more things make sense and bring greater meaning. The mystery of the Trinity is something to pray and live.

Please help:

How can you help? There is one body of believers but many gifts given for the common good. Our Catholic church and our collaborative encourage us to take part in the saving ministry of our Lord. Our volunteers in all aspects of ministry willingly and quietly week after week give of themselves in the name of the Lord.

Please prayerfully consider volunteering to help in the life of our parish. We are greatly enriched by the help of all. Perhaps this is something you have not done before and you are not sure you can do this. We will be happy to train you. God really likes it when we use our gifts and talents to help people to be happy and to bring others closer to Him. Volunteering really brightens the times of so many and is so enriching to life. We can really use your help.

Preached and Directed Retreat for Religious and Laity

Living the Psalms, Living in God's Presence

Presenters: Fr. Flavio Gillio & Dottie Levesque

The Psalms present us with endless inspiration and provide us with a window into the very nature of God. The Psalms teach us how to relate to God with all of life's experiences and emotions: frustration, doubt, fear, anger, shame, hatred, sorrow and insecurities; but also with praise, joy, and gratitude. Let us explore Israel's ancient prayers and the Church's Prayer of the Hours. Discover who we are and what God means for us. Become free to pray passionately with emotion as sincere worshipers in our quest to experience God's presence.

The retreat begins Sunday at 7:00 pm (Registration at 6:30 pm)
Ends Sunday after Brunch

Suggested Donation: $550 per person
