September 15 ~ Twenty-fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time

The gospel today speaks of the lost sheep, lost coin, lost son. There is great rejoicing when what is lost has been found. Each of the parables make it clear that God does not want to see anyone lost, because of sin. In your prayer this week ask for the grace to be open to see that God is crazy in love for you just as if you were the only person in the world. Rejoice in that gift!

Pastor's Message

Reflections on the Twenty-fifth
Sunday in Ordinary Time

How do we use the time, talents, and treasures we have received from God? In God's eyes, wealth and all gifts carry with it some serious responsibilities. It says a great deal about each of us in not only how we make money but also what we do with it. Do we squander our money, or are we generous with it? With our money, we can do a lot of good for others. When we help others with our money we are not only making friends here but also in the next world. Do we also give a percentage of our time and talent to God? How well do we take care of others as well as ourselves? Do we welcome people as Jesus welcomes us? Do we think of our actions in terms of future life? As followers of Jesus, we are also encouraged to find creative ways to expand our spiritual wealth. Good stewardship is all about using the gifts that we have been given to build up God's kingdom. May we pray for each other.

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

Priest comes & Priest goes; Jesus remains the same
Time flies when one is having fun. My three years with you have been a blessing, prayerful, joyful, comfortable and full of rewards.

I thought that I would stay longer, and I would love to remain for a long time, but as the Sacred Scripture said "We can make our plans, but the Lord determines our steps." Proverbs 16: 9.

You can take someone out of Randolph, but you can never take Randolph out of someone, which means you will always be in my thoughts, my prayers, and in my heart and vice versa. The most wonderful places to be in the world are: in someone's thoughts, prayers and heart.

From the bottom of my heart and from every fiber of being, I thank each of you very much, each of you has been so generous to me, in sharing your faith, your love, your joy, and your pain, you have shaped and touched my life in so many ways, you enable me to be a better person, Christian, and priest. And I am so sorry, if I have taken you for granted, and I beg forgiveness. "I shall pass this way but once. Therefore, any good that I can do or any kindness that I can show, let me do it now, for I shall not pass this way again." Prayer is one of the best gifts we receive. There is no cost but a lot of rewards. Let's continue to pray for one another and offer it all through the Blessed Mother to Jesus.

Pax Vobiscum

MASS OF THANKSGIVING FOR SISTER JUBILIARIANS

Each year, the Archdiocese of Boston celebrates the Sisters' Jubilees for those who are commemorating an anniversary in their consecrated life—25, 50, 60, 65, 70 years.

On September 22, 2019, Cardinal Seán O'Malley will be the principal celebrant at a Mass of Thanksgiving followed by Dinner for the Jubilarians who can participate and their guests; this will take place at St. Elizabeth's Church in Milton at 3pm.

This celebration is a wonderful opportunity to honor all the religious Sisters who have so tirelessly worked in a variety of ministries in this Archdiocese. Their lives of dedication and service have contributed to the building up of the Kingdom of God, and we are all beneficiaries.

Everyone is invited to participate in this Mass of Thanksgiving and render thanks to God for the Sisters of the Archdiocese of Boston.
