GRAND ANNUAL COLLECTION

Our Grand Annual Collection is now under way! This is a major source of support for our parish to help us maintain our physical plant and provide the services you deserve!

Some have received a letter from Fr. Phil asking you for your support. If you did not receive a letter it is only because we do not have an address on file for you.

There are blank envelopes at the end of the pews for those who would like to help but did not receive an envelope.

Please be sure to use a Grand Annual envelope if you are supporting this effort, since we will have no other way of knowing your intention.

Your contribution may be put into any collection basket of your choosing.

Thank you for your continued support!

Fr. Phil

Book of Remembrance: During the month of November, the Book of Remembrance is now placed on a table in the back of the church. All are invited to write the names of their deceased loved ones.

Reflections on the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus makes it clear that we are not to be afraid of the Kingdom of God. Signs of the Kingdom of God are already among us. Do we recognize some of these signs, and do these signs give us anxiety or hope? The readings today are encouraging us to persevere in our faith, hope, and love. These three theological virtues are qualities that must be strong in the life of a disciple of Jesus.

The Gospel today is encouraging us to look beyond the immediate. We must work for God's kingdom with justice, compassion, mercy, and concern for others. Perseverance and endurance are necessary for the future as well. We can make a difference witnessing to Jesus in a world of confusion. In the end, the faithful will be united with God as God's gift of everlasting life is for those who are faithful. Each of us in life from time to time may have been hurt by others or we may have hurt others. This is a good time of the year to look at this and see if it is possible to let go of past hurts and to pray that others will forgive us.

Some of our loved ones or others who may have been called home to God may have hurt us or we may have hurt them. This is a good time to look at the joys and the good they have done and try to let go of the pain and, in prayer, ask for forgiveness.

May I suggest also that we bring this to God in prayer seeking His guidance and consider the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

ALL VOLUNTEERS!

If you are over 18 and volunteer here at St. Bernadette's, it's time to renew your annual CORI Form.

There are 2020 CORI forms in the Sacristy, ushers' closet, kitchen, chapel, and office.

Please fill the form out completely, give it to a CAP Team member or Ministry Leader, and show your picture ID. Forms are due by November 17.

November 17 ~ Thirty-third Sunday of Ordinary Time
As the Liturgical Year draws to a close, the readings have a dark, somewhat frightening tenor about them. But Jesus offers hope, even amid predictions of "... powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place" and yes, persecution too. This gospel reminds us to pray for victims of natural disasters as well as for those Christians who are being persecuted for their faith. The growing secularization of our culture demands that people of faith be ready to give testimony to the saving message of Jesus Christ. Jesus assures us, "I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute." Trust Jesus, He will give you the wisdom to say what needs to be said.
